

NOTE

FRUIT PULP & CONC, PLANT

The Food Company is an independent division of a Corporation, the flagship company of the rapidly expanding diversified group. It has adopted state of the art technology for processing Fruits and Vegetables.

The ultra modern factory incorporates the latest processing technology using Aseptic packaging system which is the most advanced in the world today. The plant has 8,500 MT per annum (5 MT/Hr) of finished products processing capacity in bulk and consumer packs. All the processing operations like Extraction, Refining, Concentration, Sterilization and packing are automatic and are of the latest technology.

The 125 MT/day capacity plant processes various tropical fruits into natural pulps and concentrates viz. Mango, Guava, Papaya, tamarind, Amla and Tomato Paste for use by food product manufactures. In addition to this, it also offers a range of consumer products like Fruits in cans, Sauces, Jams, Syrups, Fruit Juices etc. of the highest quality standards. These products are made under strict quality control. The latest automatic machinery is used for each operations such as peeling, slicing, coring, blenching and sterilization

A list of Machinery and Equipment can be provided on request. For any details, please contact :-

Suman Project Consultants Pvt. Ltd.

B-168 East of Kailash

New Delhi – 110065

India

Tel #: +91-11-26848961 / 26313391

Contact@SumanProject.Com

www.SumanProject.Com

Suman Project Consultants